Hair cut and style

I have hair with quite a strong curl, and I find that this salon really knows how to cut it. I love coming to Casey's and having my hair straightened for a sleek and glossy look, or blow-dried curly and soft for going out or for styled prom nights. I go about six times a year, or if I have a special event on.

Cost: $58.55

Keratin treatment on shoulder-length hair

With my frizzy and curly hair, it's difficult to find a hairdresser I can trust. Before discovering Casey's, I kept my hair short and layered, and because of Singapore's humidity it would become very bushy very quickly. After discovering that a keratin treatment would fill in natural gaps in the hair strand to smooth my hair, I tried it here and loved the results. For once, I had the opportunity to wear my hair long and I love it! I now return for the treatment four to five times a year, and I feel the cost is well worth the benefit of it keeping my unruly hair in check.

Keratin treatment on short hair and cut

I get a keratin treatment to make my hair more manageable and less curly in Singapore's humidity. After the treatment, my hair looks fuller and silkier, but it still needs a boost of colour. I feel Casey's always does a great job, considering I often change my hair colour and style. I have it coloured every six weeks, and go for keratin about three times a year.

Cost: Keratin on short hair, $223.65, cut $190.75

Colour and cut on shoulder-length hair

I first tried Casey's salon in 2010, before my son's wedding in England – naturally I wanted to look my best. My hair had adopted the Singapore frizz and was unruly, dry and brittle. I was recommended to try Casey by a friend, and had a colour, cut and treatment – and I felt like a million dollars at the wedding. I now come for a cut every two months, and after being introduced here to Aveda hair care products I use them regularly. Summer is always difficult, because I return to Australia for two months and revert to colouring my own hair – obviously, I never get the same effect! After a treatment, my hair is always well conditioned and coloured to enhance my appearance, with a cut that's appropriate for my age.

Cost: Colouring $223.65, cut $190.75
